Heaven's mountain's callin' me
Through life's valley dark.
Thy word lights a path for me,
Thy hand comforts my heart.

Chorus: I will never be alone
With you by my side,
The path is windin, blocked by stone,
But I'll fear not you're my guide.

Though the path be steep inclined
With snares to trap my soul,
Though I falter, fall behind,
The death has made me whole.

Chorus: I will never be alone
With you by my side,
The path is windin, blocked by stone,
But I'll fear not you're my guide.

When my time it come to rise
And leave this world of care,
With glad shouts, no tear-dimmed eyes
I'll meet you in the air.

Chorus: I will never be alone
With you by my side,
The path is windin, blocked by stone,
But I'll fear not you're my guide.

Chorus: I will never be alone
With you by my side,
The path is windin, blocked by stone,
But I'll fear not you're my guide.
