

Thank You

Becky Buller, Goodnight Sparky Music, BMI

Chorus: Thank you for another day to praise you, Lord
Thank you for the blessings only you can give
You've given me this life so I can praise you, Lord
Thank you for another blessed day to live

I am a vessel, a jar of clay
Empty and wanting 'til your spirit moved my way
Gave me a purpose, gave me breath
So I could praise you from my birth unto my death

Chorus: Thank you for another day to praise you, Lord
Thank you for the blessings only you can give
You've given me this life so I can praise you, Lord
Thank you for another blessed day to live

The trees are many so green and tall
Created by You as an example for us all
They lift their branches up to the stars
And praise you by being just exactly what they are

Chorus: Thank you for another day to praise you, Lord
Thank you for the blessings only you can give
You've given me this life so I can praise you, Lord
Thank you for another blessed day to live
