

Didn't Die

Becky Buller, Goodnight Sparky Music, BMI

Joshua Carson came around
Said he gonna put me in a wedding gown
But I refused
Told me I's the girl he loved the best
Then he drew a dagger through my lilly white breast
Cuz I refused
They ruled my death a suicide
The family was ashamed
And, oh, how Joshua did cry
Over my grave
But what they don't know is I keep walking
Walking 'tween earth and sky
I'm not living, but I didn't die

Joshua Carson took a wife
Promised her the best and an easy life
He did provide
In the shadows, I'd watch and wait
All the while nursing a burning hate
For him and his blushing bride
Cuz happiness is what they had
But only for a time
For Joshua had yet to pay
The debt of his crime
Cuz what they don't know is I keep walking
Walking 'tween earth and sky
I'm not living, but I didn't die

Vengeance is mine, says the Lord
But Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned
Joshua
That's where I'm headed, where I'll be
As soon as you get around to joining me
Joshua
Until then, how's about a little hell
In the heaven of your home
From now on you might not wanna leave
Your wife all alone
Cuz what you don't know is I keep walking
Walking 'tween earth and sky
I'm not living, but I didn't

Eleanor Carson heard a voice
Telling her the story of an awful choice
Her husband had made
Voice got louder, Ellie got scared
Tore her clothes, cut her hair
And grabbed a blade

He found her in the rocking chair
Stabbed through the heart
A note pinned to her in my hand
Saying, "We know what you are."
Now every day he's still walking
All around town, he's still walking
He lost his mind, but he's still walking
Walking 'tween earth and sky
He's not living, but he didn't die
