

Our Gingerbread House

Lisa Aschmann, Nashville Geographic, ASCAP

When we grow up won't it be sweet
If you decide to marry me
We'll live in a forest of lollypop trees
In our very own gingerbread house

We'll never have to mow the lawn
Just spread more shredded cocoanut on
From the white pretzel fence to the blue icing pond
That's next to our gingerbread house

Bridge 1: We'll put Red Vines and peppermint patties
And gumdrops on the roof
We'll make it so cozy and mistletoe-sy
It'll be You-Know-Who's favorite stop on his route

We'll be snug and toasty Christmas Day
Peeking through sugar glass window panes
At the marshmallow snowman who roll down the lane
In front of our gingerbread house

Inst. Verse

Bridge 2: One day we'll have gingerbread children
A raisin-eyed boy and a girl
In frosting pajamas they'll wait up for Santa
But fall fast asleep like the rest of the world

When we grow up won't it be sweet
If you decide to marry me
We'll live in a forest of lollypop trees
In our very own gingerbread house
