A D A
Many tears have been shed from these tired eyes.

E E D A
My hands are callused and they're worn.

A D A
This earthly body needs to sleep awhile

E E D A
And longing echoes through my soul.

F#m D A
Let me see the faces of my loved ones,

F#m D E
Let this bent and broken spirit fly.

A D
Chorus: Take me over Jordan
A F#m
To that home beyond the sun
A E A
In that land where we'll never die.

A D A
There's a crown of life waitin' there for me

E E D A
In those nail-scarred hands I love so well

A D A
That suffered great pain and agony

E E D A
So that we need to taste the death of Hell.

F#m D A
And we'll see the faces of our loved ones

F#m D E
As our bent and broken spirits fly.

A D
Chorus: Take me over Jordan
A F#m
To that home beyond the sun
A E A
In that land where we'll never die.

F#m D A
Let me see the faces of my loved ones,

F#m D E
Let this bent and broken spirit fly.

A D
Chorus: Take me over Jordan
A F#m
To that home beyond the sun
A E A
In that land where we'll never die.

A D
Chorus: Take me over Jordan
A F#m
To that home beyond the sun
A E A
In that land where we'll never die.
