The thoughts inside my head are shouting
As I turn my collar to the snowy streets
The chill of darkness is surrounding
The air is sharp, it hurts to breathe
The city's coming down on me

Chorus: When I think about you, baby
 I begin to doubt you, baby
 Could I live without you
 Maybe, baby, I can

All the reasons lie forgotten
In the shallows of these canyon walls
I wonder how it was I lost them
Or if they matter now at all
Does it matter now at all

Chorus: When I think about you, baby
 I begin to doubt you, baby
 Could I live without you
 Maybe, baby, I can

Oooo

Chorus: When I think about you, baby
 I begin to doubt you, baby
 Could I live without you
 Maybe, baby, I can
